October 2025

Families

Principle's Note

We're so excited to kick off a new month full of fun activities, meaningful connections, and opportunities to grow together as a community! As we dive into everything this season has to offer, we're especially looking forward to reconnecting, sharing joyful moments, and creating lasting memories with your children.

Thank you for being here with us and for your continued support—it truly means the world. We couldn't do what we do without your partnership and involvement, and we're grateful to have you as part of our community. Here's to a month of learning, laughter, and growing together!

Check In

1. Remember to please check in with your child's teacher about things they may need such as back up clothes, diapers/pull ups, and wipes, etc.
2. Please if bringing in a morning or afternoon snack and it needs to be placed in the refrigerator please let the teacher in the room know.
3. Friendly reminder to always label (first and last name) items that you bring in!

Reminders
